

Courses flow

From nav, select courses

Calls `courseRepository.GetAll()`, returns list of courses (courses view)

If user selects Add

Get request sent with empty Course object

AddCourse view returned with form to add course

Submit button on form sends post request including new string `courseName`

Post Action takes in course, calls `CourseRepository.Add(sending courseName)`

Redirects back to Courses action

If user selects Edit

Get request sent with the course ID of the course to edit

EditCourse view is returned with entry form to edit (sends existing Course Object)

Submit button on form sends post request including new course object

Post Action takes in course, calls `courseRepository.edit(sending course)`

Redirects back to Courses action

If user selects Delete

Get request sent with the course ID (int) of the course to delete

DeleteCourses view is returned with confirmation page (sends existing Course object)

Submit button on form sends post request including course object to be deleted

Post Action takes in course, calls `courseRepository.Delete(sending courseId)`

Redirects back to Courses action